PRESS RELEASE

Today, May 2, 2007, Sarah Eichlan was charged in a complaint filed in the Superior Court with the murder of her son, Brayden Eichlan, on the night of April 23, 2007.

It is alleged that during a time period when she was alone with her son in their bedroom, the child sustained multiple blunt force traumas to his head. The Medical Examiner's Office investigation determined those injuries to be the cause of death and the manner of death to be a homicide.

Criminal charges are merely accusations and the defendant is presumed innocent of all charges until and unless proven guilty.
