Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

AREA HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS (Graduating 8th Grade) TO ATTEND 11th ANNUAL WARREN COUNTY JUNIOR POLICE ACADEMY TO BE HELD JULY 25th THROUGH JULY 29th AT THE WARREN TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL.

WARREN COUNTY, New Jersey. Various Warren County Law Enforcement Agencies will participate in the tenth annual Warren County Junior Police Academy to held July 25th – 29th 2011 at the Warren County Technical High School, 1500 Route 57, Washington, NJ 07882. The five-day program is a multi-agency cooperative effort amongst county enforcement agencies aimed at enhancing and promoting the concepts of community oriented policing to high school aged youths, ages 13-18. Through the Academy oriented program students will learn basic law enforcement skills while exploring possible careers in criminal justice.

Under the leadership of veteran law enforcement officers, the Warren County Junior Police Academy brings together students and criminal justice professional in a safe, drug-free environment to inspire a sense of community service and civic responsibility. While covering challenging material, the Academy moves along at an exciting and engaging pace. It incorporates a variety of activities, innovative grading exercises, as well as guest speakers in the exploration of careers in criminal justice.
