On 28 December 2009, Mansfield Police Department received a report of shoplifting in the Hackettstown, NJ, CVS drug store. An investigation revealed the juvenile and an unknown number of adults had entered the store for the purpose of stealing $763.69 worth of merchandize including Crest White Strips, Prilosec, Mucinex, and Prevacid. The juvenile and an adult female were arrested and charged with third degree shoplifting. None of the merchandize was recovered. The persons involved in the incident had also targeted the Hackettstown Walgreen's, but were unable to steal anything in that store because the manager of CVS alerted personnel in Walgreen's regarding the incident.
